Covid-19 Government Briefing – 23rd June 2020

Today the Government restarted more of the economy, by allowing the reopening of some businesses on 4th July 2020. As the speech by the Prime Minister at lunchtime Tuesday was being broadcast, the Sports and Recreational Alliance were holding another meeting at which the BDC was present. The SRA advise the DCMS and committees regarding not just our sector of dance but the whole dance and sport areas not yet permitted to reopen. The membership of this Alliance is enormous.

We, along with the Alliance and its membership will continue to do all we can to influence those that make decisions. There is light at the end of the tunnel and we wish everyone to be there.

The British Dance Council, our organisations and the Sports and Recreational Alliance continue to advise that you follow the Government guidelines on reopening of sectors within our industry.
